

Kaleb Dinwiddie

Kaleb Dinwiddie is the proud owner of Silver Oak Farms, a thriving agricultural enterprise located in Trenton, TN. A lifelong farmer, Kaleb graduated from Gibson County High School in 1998 and immediately began his journey in the farming industry. Now approaching his 45th birthday on December 10, 2024, he has devoted over 25 years to cultivating the land and supporting the agricultural community.

Kaleb's dedication to professional growth is evident in his completion of numerous farm management courses and his active role in leading meetings and conferences within the industry. As a seasoned expert in farm operations, he specializes in optimizing workflows and fostering strong employee relations, ensuring his team thrives alongside the business.

Above all, Kaleb is passionate about empowering farmers to achieve sustainable profitability. Through his leadership at Silver Oak Farms, he continues to explore innovative strategies to help farmers secure the margins they need to succeed in an ever-changing agricultural landscape. Kaleb's vision and commitment have made him a trusted voice among his peers and a steadfast advocate for the farming community.
